EAST KETTERING – GOOD RESPONSE TO FIRST PUBLIC EXHIBITION

The East Kettering Landowners Group says it is delighted at the response to its first public exhibition which was held on Wednesday evening. 150 local residents attended the event at Barton Seagrave Community Centre.

Alfred Buller, representing the landowner group said,

“There is a lot of interest in what is happening at East Kettering and I think many residents recognise the benefits a properly planned development could bring to the town. We have received a lot of comments and we will be considering all of them before we finalise our plans.”

Further exhibitions take place at:

- Warkton Village Hall
Thursday 15th December, 4pm - 8pm
- Corn Market Hall, Kettering
Saturday 17th December, 10am - 2pm
- The Studio, Cranford Hall
Monday 19th December, 3pm - 7pm
- Burton Latimer Community Centre
Tuesday 20th December, 3pm - 7pm
- Isebrook School, Eastleigh Rd, Kettering
Wednesday 21st December, 3pm - 7pm

Detailed plans for new homes, jobs, leisure and recreational facilities and an extensive network of green infrastructure will be worked up in the New Year.
